Dear Parishioners,

Middle to late August is always a busy time in a parish, as schools resume, CCD commences for its year, and many activities are planned in a marriage. Of course, at St. Luke we are no exception to this. But at the August deanery meeting I was informed of an upcoming retreat for married couples that I want to share and promote with you.

Our Lady of Lourdes parish is sponsoring a two-day couple retreat on October 7-8 at their parish, entitled "Living the Gift of Marriage." Mario Sacasa, whom I know and recommend highly as a devout Catholic marriage and family therapist, is directing the two day retreat. The cost is minimal; $30 per couple. Babysitting is available on request. While the retreat is not specifically aimed at a particular age range within marriage, I would think many of our couples in the parish can benefit from it. To register for the retreat, you can contact either Our Lady of Lourdes directly or pick up a flyer for registration in the community room of the church.

Thanks to the many parishioners who moved quickly to organize and direct donations for flood relief efforts in south Louisiana last week. We know the blessing of strangers and fellow Catholics from across the country helping us, so this is a fine opportunity to "pay it forward." I am sure our neighbors to the west of us are most grateful for all that you have done!

Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hasten to help us!

Father Pat
